His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej

In Eternal Respect and Gratitude

Our Beloved King

All of us at Pinnacle Gastro Co., Ltd., foreigners and Thai were born during the reign of His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej. We all deeply feel the tragic loss of his passing. In the name of Pinnacle Gastro, our company would like to express our sincere condolences on the death of King Bhumibol, the father of Thailand.

We are full of admiration and respect for His Majesty's great wisdom, values, innovations, and philosophies and try to absorb his teachings and instill it in our own ways of working at Pinnacle Gastro Co., Ltd..

We truly admire the Sufficiency Economy philosophy which consists of three pillars, including: moderation, reasonableness, and risk management. People will be successful following this philosophy under two conditions, knowledge and virtue.

Most clear was his kindness and vision, initiating thousands and thousands of Royal Development Projects (RDPs) aiming to improve his nation's well-being. His Majesty also was a great innovator with projects such as the Royal Rain, Renewable Energy and many more.

PRODUCT HIGHLIGHT

The Story Of La Mère Poulard

Mont Saint-Michel has been reputed for its hospitality since the Middle Ages, it is therefore no surprise that back in 1888 Anette Poulard and her husband Victor chose to open their inn offering a warm welcome to the pilgrims and epicureans who came to seek out and sample her world-famous cuisine.

Known throughout the world for their famous omelettes, cooked over the flames of the inn's open fireplace, La Mère Poulard remains to this day a benchmark in French gastronomy for its variety, originality and light touch; a cuisine that blends tradition, quality and simplicity. La Mère Poulard's popularity is further enhanced by the international renown of Mont Saint-Michel: the image of La Mère Poulard has become synonymous with that of Mont Saint-Michel; both in France and abroad. They share a mutually beneficial dynamic and the site is equally well-known for its Abbey as it is for La Mère Poulard.

Highland Spring, the UK's leading producer of naturally sourced bottle water, bottled in Scotland, it has again been awarded 'UK Water Brand of the Year' for the third consecutive year at the World Branding Awards.

Two hundred and ten brands from 30 countries were honored at the ceremony at the iconic One Whitehall Place in London, where winners included Apple, Nike and Rolex.
